

Education for Everyone

College of the Mainland (COM) is a two-year community college in Texas City, Texas, that has served Galveston County residents since 1967. Each year, more than 4,000 credit and 10,000 continuing education students take advantage of our exceptional degree and certificate programs to earn the knowledge and skills needed to achieve brighter futures.

At COM, it's all about you. We do everything possible to ensure you have a rewarding and successful educational experience:

- Small class sizes;
- Individualized attention from knowledgeable faculty;
- Caring advisors and staff that steer you through financial aid, career placement, transfer requirements and more;
- One of the most affordable tuitions in Texas;
- Financial aid, work-study programs, scholarships and grants;
- Career opportunities through our strong relationships with local businesses and industry;
- A convenient location, plus our easy-to-access North County Learning Center in League City that serves residents throughout Bay Area Houston.

COM has the people, programs and power to make your dreams come true.

Quality Programs

That is COM. From nationally-accredited degree programs to skill-based, technical certification courses to online degree opportunities, there is a program here for you. And with a COM education, you will be ahead of the game in your field of study. Several of our programs boast 100 percent student pass rates on state board examinations. In the end, we give you the knowledge you need to compete in today's workforce.
