
Customer Satisfaction Form

College of the Mainland is committed to public and customer satisfaction. Customer service is a high priority for the College District. If an employee or department has not provided an appropriate level of customer service in your opinion, we would greatly appreciate your taking the time to complete the following request and submit to COM's Customer Service Representative.

Describe the nature of your concern. Provide any information that you can about the person/department you were in contact with, the date and time occurrence, and any other factors that might help us to resolve the situation as quickly as possible.

Thank you!
