

Nolan Miller Bio

Nolan Miller, P.E., CSP, Principal, LJB, Inc., is a Structural Engineer and Safety Consultant with 23 years of experience who possesses a thorough knowledge of OSHA regulations and safety standards. He has focused his career on providing fall protection consultation and design services. He has experience in fall hazard risk assessments, abatement design, system inspection and certification, program evaluation, and fall protection training. Mr. Miller also has extensive experience in analyzing structures for appropriate loading and modifying them to meet clients' needs. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering.