Legal Aspects of Recordkeeping

Recordkeeping for small businesses goes beyond the OSHA 300 log. OSHA has requirements specific to recordkeeping, but so does HIPPA and Workers Compensation. Do you find yourself questioning how long you have to keep specific records? What records can be kept together? What must be stored separately? Which records must be made available to employees? Come learn how to implement strong recordkeeping practices in your organization.

Join us as David Minces, Minces PLLC, discusses the Legal Aspects of Recordkeeping. Mr. Minces has practiced law successfully representing numerous companies involved in government agency investigations including the United States Department of Labor (DOL) and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). Mr. Minces has been repeatedly recognized as a “Rising Star” by Super Lawyers and Texas Monthly Magazine and was named among Strathmore’s “Who’s Who” of American lawyers.
