

Affidavit of Support – Sponsor

In compliance with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, College of the Mainland requires confirmation of financial resources for each applicant who will attend on a student (F-1) visa. As the sponsor, you must show you have sufficient income and /or financial resources to assure that the individual you are sponsoring will not become a public charge while in the United States.

This statement must be completed and on file with the college prior to the release of the Form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility). College of the Mainland requires a bank statement as supporting documentation or a letter from the sponsor’s employer.

The costs listed below are estimates and are subject to change without notification. Tuition and fees are due in full at the beginning of each semester. The school estimates the student’s expenses per year (two semesters of study and three months of summer vacation).

Tuition and Fees	$3,600.00
Living expenses	$16,800.00
Books and Supplies	$1,600.00
Total	$22,000.00

This document must be certified/notarized.

I swear (affirm) that I know the contents of this affidavit signed by me and that the statements are true and correct. That I am willing and able to receive, maintain, and support _____. That I am ready and willing to deposit a bond, if necessary, to guarantee that such prospective student will not become a public charge during his/her stay in the United States.
