

NEW! Spring Personal Enrichment Workshops

Framing for Art Shows Workshop – 10 hrs

This two-part workshop is designed to teach students how to frame artwork for successful acceptance by art shows. The first night will include an introduction, rules, and techniques. Students will bring their artwork for evaluation and then leave this session with a list of materials and supplies needed to frame it (estimated supply cost $30). Second day students will bring their supplies and frame their art. Instruction includes techniques for mounting and matting artwork, including photographs, watercolors, pastels, acrylics, and oil paintings on a variety of materials, as well as framing and hanging artwork. Whether you are entering a piece in a local art show or just want to learn how to frame it to hang in your home, this workshop can help!

Tuesday, 2/25, 5:30-8:30 p.m.
Saturday, 2/29, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Six-Layered Fused Glass Workshop – 24 hrs

In this three-day workshop students will create 3/4 inch thick glass with 3D-like dimension and color. Students will learn how to apply glass enamel paint to separate glass layers and fuse these layers together. Image selection, layout, use of enamels, fusing schedules, bubble control, and finishing techniques will all be discussed. Students do not need painting experience; it is helpful but not required. Tools supplied. Students will create two thick glass designs during the workshop.

Registration ends 4/10/2020

Saturday 4/18, 4/25 and 5/2
9 a.m.-5 p.m.
$495 (supplies included)

Social Media Bootcamp for Small Businesses or Entrepreneurs – 6 hrs

Go in-depth into the largest social media platforms and how to use the power of each platform to market your business to grow a strong following. This workshop will focus on creating connections with your customers, developing a loyal following and becoming the go-to expert in your field/industry. We will create your company or brand pages on each platform and help each develop an action plan of what, when and how to post on each platform. This is not a class about creating ads, however, it will be discussed briefly.

Thursday 3/26, 4/2 and 4/9
6-8 p.m.
$75

All workshops are held at the College of the Mainland Lifelong Learning Center at Gulfway Plaza.
